

Apollo teams up with Irish Champion MTB

Apollo have teamed up with Colin Ross for six training sessions. Starting in April the first two sessions will be at Mary Peters. This is an exciting opportunity for Apollo as our sponsorship deal, with Chain Reaction Cycles, gives us access to the Team Vitus rider.

Colin Ross (Rosco) is a 7 time national downhill mountainbike champion in Ireland and has also represented Ireland at the world championships 6 times. Through his career in cycling he also worked as a fitness instructor at a local gym in Belfast and after working there for over 7 years he decided in 2009 to go out on his own and started up 'Rosco Lines'. The idea behind this was to setup a company that specifies in both mountainbike coaching and fitness training. So whether it's XC, DH or just for fun and fitness we will have something to suit your needs.

We have 10 places per session. These sessions are free and our open to all club members. Although preference will be given to youth riders who compete in XC. If you are interested please get in touch with Dylan. The first dates are Wednesday 8th April and Wednesday 22nd April.
